- I. Board business
 - a. Minutes for September and October were approved.

- II. Director's report
 - a. 2017 accomplishments will be presented to Borough Council. They include:
 - i. Summer hiring completed by Memorial Day 2017
 - ii. Summer employee performance review procedure implemented
 - iii. Increase Recreation's usage of turf and lights
 - iv. In response to town survey, Audrey met with the superintendent of schools to implement an open-gym program for teens
 - v. Audrey and Mayor Holmberg met with the 55+ group to solicit further feedback on their views of the town and services.
 - b. 2018 Goals:
 - i. Support the beach renovation project
 - ii. Find Hub Lakes coordinator
 - iii. Work with DPW to facilitate the Gold Award/Eagle Scout project submission and execution process
 - c. Other
 - i. The Briarcliff Sports Club may move out of the Rec Department insurance plan and into the BC School insurance plan. This is being investigated by BOE.
 - ii. Boat Rack Rental procedure belongs to borough hall, not Rec, so Rec will support but not own efforts to improve the current procedure.
